(Please mark all volunteer opportunities you are interested in by placing an X in the box)

- HABITAT FOR HUMANITY seeks volunteers to sort inventory, serve customers in the Habitat Store, and perform various customer service and administrative tasks in the main office.
- GRANGE LIBRARY is seeking volunteers to assist with library operations and community events. Various opportunities available.
- MEALS-ON-WHEELS needs volunteer drivers to deliver meals to homebound seniors. Volunteers needed from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and/or Fridays. Training provided. Volunteer also needed to assist in packing meals for the home-delivery program and help prepare food at the Southeast Community Center from 7-10 a.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and/or Friday. Required: current driver's license and insurance; copy of WSP driving record; food handler's card (agency will pay); ability to lift 25 pounds. Volunteers must have a background check and drug test.
- LOCAL AREA FOOD BANKS are in need of volunteers that will work with food bank staff to provide support in distribution of food. Volunteer responsibilities include preparing the food bank so that visitors can be served efficiently during the distribution hours; sorting and putting away donated food; distributing food to people in need; bagging bulk foods; setting up boxes prior to distribution day; greeting patrons and checking them in. Also needed are drivers to pick up food from local grocery stores.
- LOCAL MUSEUMS are primarily in need of volunteer tour guides for visiting groups (think field trips). Some also desire assistance with record keeping and museum maintenance. We are currently partnered with McAllister Museum of Aviation and the Central Washington Agricultural Museum.
- PROJECT WARM-UP is in constant need of volunteers to knit and crochet handmade items to be distributed locally during the winter months. Yarn is provided by the RSVP Office. Volunteers work from home to create their pieces and return them to the office when they are finished.
- RSVP OFFICE needs volunteers to assist with data entry and office tasks. Volunteers serving in this role may be asked to do perform any number of duties relevant to the program, including but not limited to writing assignments, assistance with recognition luncheon planning, collection of donations from local businesses, filing paperwork, etc.
- RSVP ADVISORY COUNCIL is in need of new members. The Council meets monthly and supports the Director in program planning and implementation. Members should have knowledge of the most pressing needs in our community and be willing to offer their input on program direction. Duties outside of regular meetings can include recruitment, assistance with the annual recognition luncheon, community relations, and more.
- SHIBA (STATEWIDE HEALTH INSURANCE BENEFITS ADVISORS) The Office of the Insurance Commissioner is seeking volunteers to provide free, unbiased information about health care coverage and access to help improve the lives of all WA state residents. Volunteers may work from their own homes answering health care and prescription drug coverage questions. There is an initial 2 day training to begin and then monthly update trainings. WA State Patrol background checks are also required by all potential volunteers.
- VOLUNTEER CHORE SERVICES seeks volunteers to provide basic in-home assistance to low-income elders and adults with disabilities. Volunteers are needed to provide transportation to medical appointments, cut firewood, build wheelchair ramps, help with grocery shopping and errands, move and haul, perform light housekeeping and laundry, and assist with yard work and mowing lawns/shoveling snow. Mileage reimbursement can be provided. No minimum time commitment. Volunteers must have a background check before starting to volunteer.
- SUNNYSIDE SENIOR CENTER is always looking for volunteers to spend time at the center assisting the senior members, to help clean the building, decorate the center according to monthly holidays. A good fit will have respect for themselves and others and will be motivated simply to spend time with their people and to improve their quality of life.
